MALA eLetter #2 February 7, 2005

February and March are gearing up to be busy months for students and professionals alike. Don't miss these important events:

Saturday, February 26, 2005

2005 CSLA Awards and Annual Symposium

Faculty of Architecture Gallery, University of Manitoba

March 4th – 7th, 2005

FOCUS: recent work by students and professionals in landscape architecture

Adelaide McDermot Gallery, 318 McDermot Avenue

This exhibition of professional and student work will be held in conjunction with the Manitoba Landscapes Photography Competition. A reception will be held on the evening of Friday, March 4th. Professionals are invited to submit recent work for the exhibit. Please contact Liz Wreford (lizwreford@gmail.com) for further information.

Thursday, March 17, 2005

Shadow Mentor Day

MALA and LASA are pleased to organize this event so that students can experience "a day in the life" of a landscape architect. Professionals will be paired with students for one working day, to be followed by a gathering at a downtown pub. If you would like to participate, be sure to notify Liz Wreford (lizwreford@gmail.com) by February 11, 2005.

MALA Annual General Meeting

Further details will be provided in due course.

The next meeting of the CSLA Congress 2005 Planning Committee is scheduled for Tuesday, February 8th at 12:00 noon, Unit 15 – 30 Fort Street. Everyone is welcome to attend and volunteers are still needed. Be sure to check the congress website for registration details - www.cslacongress2005.info.

Human Resources Development Canada has recently confirmed that MALA's profile has been posted to the Work Destinations Website, a resource for professionals moving from one province to another. Please visit the site at www.workdestinations.org (search Regulated Professions, Landscape Architect, Manitoba). Many thanks are extended to Don Hester, FCSLA for pursuing this initiative on behalf of MALA, in compliance with a request from CSLA.

Following acceptance by the Examining Board, a membership application was approved at the January 17th Council Meeting. Bhavana Bonde was accepted as a full Member. Bhavana graduated with a B.Arch from Pune University (India) in 1992 and an M.Land.Arch from UBC (Vancouver) in 2001. She has been a Registered Member of the BCSLA since 2004, having passed all LARE examinations. Bhavana is attempting to establish herself since her recent move to Winnipeg. MALA is pleased to welcome her to the association!
