

MALA eLetter #7 October 2019

The 2019 MALA Golf Tournament, which was held on Friday, September 6, 2019 at the Assiniboine Golf Club, was a huge success! We had over 60 participants and more than $8,500 was raised for various student initiatives in landscape architecture. A big thank you goes out to the 2019 Golf Tournament Organizing Committee: Ryan Wakshinski (Chair), Bruce Dixon, Danielle Loeb, Ryan Epp, Krista Renwick, Janelle Harper, and Ian Laya, for all their hard work, and thank you again to all our generous sponsors and attendees for making this one of the most successful events yet! MALA would also like to thank the student volunteers, Kathryn McCudden, Elise Ouellette, Kacie Reimer, Naomi Ratte, and Christopher Sproule who were so helpful on game day. Congratulations to tournament winners Marty Friesen, Michael Gregoire, Ricky Friesen, and Ryan Wakshinski, as well as the Most Fashionably Attired Team, the “Pink Flamingoes” – Kevin Bettridge, Meaghan Hunter, Suzy Melo, and Kristen Struthers!

Tournament Winners

The tournament organizing committee is always looking for new members and new ideas, please contact the MALA Office if you are interested in helping!

Most Fashionably Attired Team

Many thanks again go to the Communications Committee and its many volunteers for making September a memorable Manitoba Landscape Architecture (MLA) Month! Several great projects were organized throughout the month, including the CanStar articles, the Community Relations Bus, Construction Tours for L+U students at Canada’s Diversity Gardens, and the Food for Thought lecture Framing the Landscape in anticipation of Flash Fest X MALA. We hope to see everyone out in October for the following events:

- Tuesday, October 1 – The LASA/MALA Movie Night (featuring The Salt of the Earth, a documentary on the life and work of photographer Sebastiao Salgado), Centre Space, John A. Russell Building, University of Manitoba, 6:30 pm
- Sunday, October 6 – Framing the Landscape: Design Charrette, Flash Fest X MALA, Buchwald Room, Millennium Library, 1:00 – 3:00 pm

Remember, Continuing Education Credits apply!
